FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Many of us have participated in Thanksgiving meals with family or friends over the last several days or maybe even today. We are grateful to God that we are able to be together and share in each other's company once again. We give thanks for the fruits of the earth that sustain our lives and for the fruits of our labors that build up our human world. We rejoice at the good news that many share. We pray for the needs of those who are facing an illness or some other difficulty in their life at this time.

The Eucharist is a Greek word that means Thanksgiving. The early family of followers of Christ gathered over the shared meal. They told of the works and words of Jesus that were remembered by the first disciples and handed on to them. They brought gifts of food or perhaps money to help those in their midst who needed food. They gave thanks for the new life they had received through the death and Resurrection of Christ and the gifts of the Holy Spirit. They prayed for help in their struggles with difficulties, sometimes including persecution. Recalling Jesus' command to "do this in memory of me" a designated leader prayed a special prayer over bread and wine. The power of the Holy Spirit make them his Body and Blood. They partook of this heavenly food that nourished the divine life within them.

I'm grateful for the energy and generosity with which parishioners in the Benedictine Catholic Communities of St. Joseph and St. John the Baptist support the life of these parishes, this Area Catholic Community. I'm grateful for the generosity with which parishioners extend the love of Christ beyond our parish communities. You support works that provide food and clothing, extend companionship to elderly people, educate young people, welcome newcomers to our communities, promote a culture of life, sustain and shape the institutions that support our local and wider communities, and many other good works. May God bless you and our parish communities and increase peace in our world.

GOSPEL REFLECTION—NOVEMBER 26

The Gospel for today is the story of the Last Judgement, when Jesus reminds us that the way we treat others is the way we treat Him. He tells of the separation of the sheep and the goats, those who do things for others and those who refuse to give to the poor and the stranger. Listen to what Jesus says about feeding the hungry and giving drink to the thirsty, welcoming the stranger and giving clothes to the naked. "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did to me." This week again we are reminded to be prepared for the final coming. What will you do this week to prepare for the final coming of Jesus? What you do for others, you do for Jesus!

STEWARDSHIP AS A WAY OF LIFE

"...whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me." – Matthew 25:40

Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But real generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness, or mercy when it's not convenient to us, when it's not on our schedule, but on the other person's timeline.
